Pork Chop Sandwich

Breaded pork, deep fried and served on a kaiser roll with lettuce, tomato, and Cheddar cheese. With your choice of french fries, potato salad, or coleslaw . . . $8.75

History of the Pork Chop Sandwich

The pork chop sandwich originated in Butte, Montana in 1924. John Burkland sold his sandwiches from the back of a wagon located on the corner of Mercury and Main Streets. As demand for the unique sandwich increased, a store opened on Mercury Street in 1932, which is still in operation today. Now pork chop sandwiches are available nationwide.

Pasty

A flaky meat and potato pie, topped with brown gravy. Served with coleslaw . . . $9.75

History of the Pasty

(pronounced - pàs•tee)

These savory turnovers consist of a short-crust pastry enfolding a chopped meat-and-potato filling. Welsh and Cornish hard rock mining pioneers brought the recipe for these meat pies from the Old Country. The Pasty became a traditional meal for the miners and a miner finding one in his lunch bucket would fondly refer to it as a "letter from 'ome".
